

Healthy Commissary Sales Summary

From December 2016 to December 2017, the number of ‘better’ or ‘best’ options available for sale increased by 45% ($p=0.06$).

Graph 1. Number of “Better” or “Best” Offerings

Graph 2. Units Sold for All Commissary Food, Beverage, and Condiment/Spice Items

From December 2016 to December 2017, the proportion of beverage units sold for beverages in the “better” or “best” categories increased significantly. In December 2016, the proportion of beverage units sold for beverages in the “better” and “best” categories was 44%; in December 2017, this was 60%. (Concurrently, saw a significant decrease in the proportion of beverage units sold of beverages in “limited” category.)

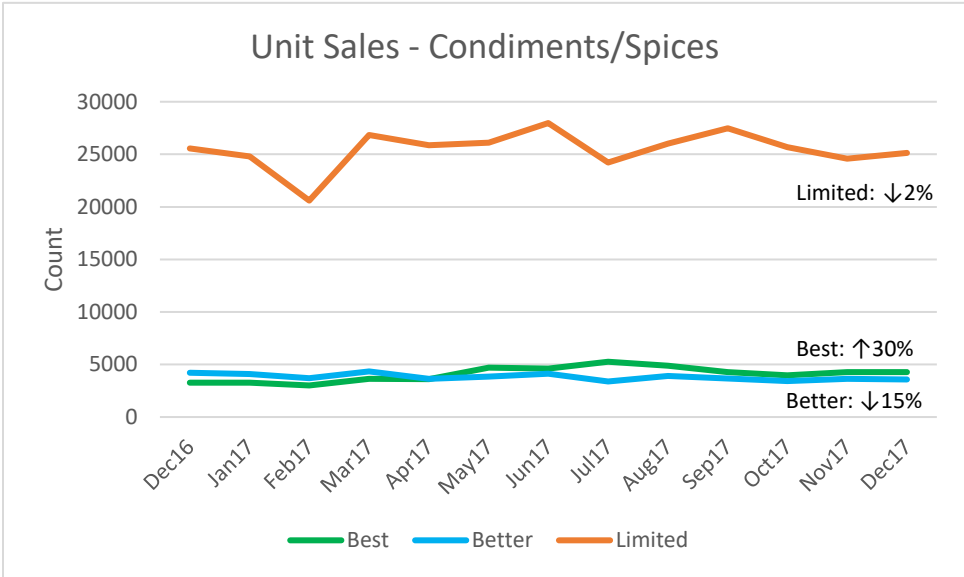

Graph 3. Units Sold for Beverage Items

Graph 4. Units Sold for Food Items

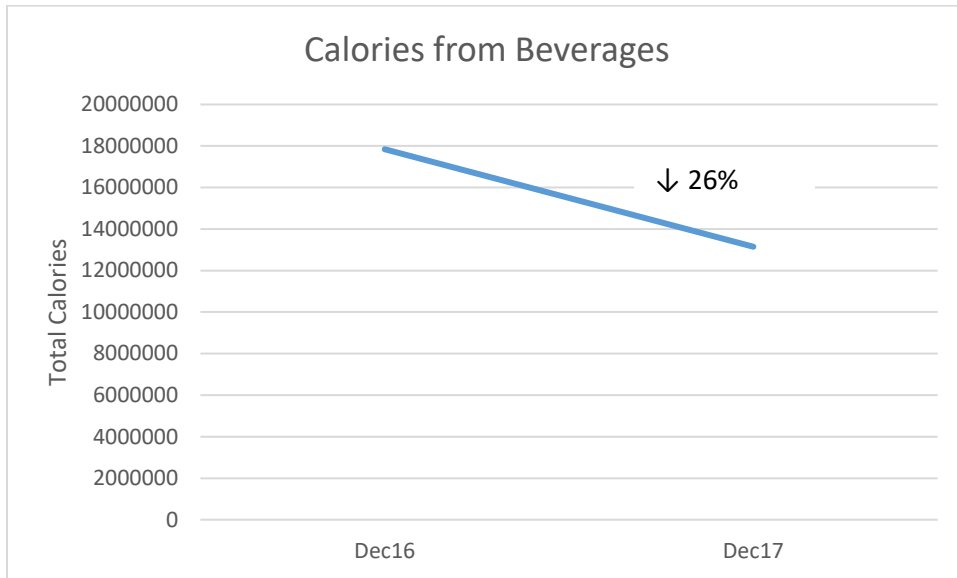

Graph 5. Units Sold for Condiment/Spice Items

From December 2016 to December 2017, the total calories from beverage sales decreased significantly, by 26%. Similarly, the total grams of sugar from beverage sales decreased significantly, by 27%.

Graph. 6. Number of Calories In Beverages Sold December 2016 vs. December 2017

Graph 7. Number of Sugar (grams) In Beverages Sold December 2016 vs. December 2017

